The announcement that Hon, Thomas Collier Platt has decided to esponse the cause of Colonel Thedore. Rosseyell who aspires to the gubernat rial chair of the Empire State, can only mean that the foxy boss has discovered that there is an avalanche of popular sentiment in favor of Teddy. Naturally Platt would prefer a man who could be more easily worked than Roosevelt. but the sensible politician usually bows to the inevitable with the best grace possible. It is not difficult to understand that the Senator's position will be more pleasant with Rooseveit as a friend than as an enemy. The attempt to inject Commodore (formerly Captair)
